 - (e) a consular officer in the place;
 - (f) a professional company secretary practising in the place; or
 - (g) any other natural person specified by the Registrar.
- (6) The Secretary may, by notice published in the Gazette, amend subsection (3), (4) or (5).

5. Dormant company

- (1) If a qualified private company passes a special resolution specified in subsection (2), and the resolution is delivered to the Registrar for registration, the company is a dormant company for the purposes of Parts 9, 10 and 12 as from the date mentioned in subsection (2)(a) as declared by the resolution.
- (2) The special resolution specified for the purposes of subsection (1) is one—
 - (a) declaring that the qualified private company will become dormant as from—
 - (i) the date of delivery of that resolution to the Registrar; or
 - (ii) any later date that is specified in that resolution; and
 - (b) authorizing the directors to deliver that resolution to the Registrar for registration.
- (3) If—
 - (a) before the repeal of section 344A of the predecessor Ordinance by section 912, a company passed a special resolution under subsection (1) of that section, and the resolution has not been delivered to the Registrar; and
 - (b) the resolution is delivered to the Registrar for registration after the repeal,the company is also a dormant company for the purposes of Parts 9, 10 and 12 as from the date of delivery of the resolution to the Registrar or as from a later date as is specified in the resolution.

- (4) If, immediately before the repeal of section 344A of the predecessor Ordinance by section 912, a company was a dormant company for the purposes of that section, the company continues to be a dormant company for the purposes of Parts 9, 10 and 12 as from the commencement date of this section.
- (5) A company that is a dormant company for the purposes of Parts 9, 10 and 12 ceases to be such dormant company if—
- (a) the company passes a special resolution declaring that the company intends to enter into an accounting transaction, and the resolution is delivered to the Registrar for registration; or
 - (b) there is an accounting transaction in relation to the company.
- (6) In this section—
- qualified private company (合資格私人公司) means a private company that is not a company specified in subsection (7).
- (7) A company specified for the purposes of the definition of qualified private company in subsection (6) is—
- (a) an authorized institution as defined by section 2(1) of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155);
 - (b) an insurer as defined by section 2(1) and (2) of the Insurance Companies Ordinance (Cap. 41);
 - (c) a corporation licensed under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) to carry on a business in any regulated activity as defined by section 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to that Ordinance;
 - (d) an associated entity, within the meaning of Part VI of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571), of a corporation mentioned in paragraph (c);

- (e) an approved trustee as defined by section 2(1) of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap. 485);
 - (f) a company having a subsidiary that falls within paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e); or
 - (g) a company that fell within paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) at any time during the 5 years immediately before the special resolution is passed.
- (8) The Financial Secretary may, by notice published in the Gazette, amend subsection (7).

6. Offering shares or debentures to public, etc.

- (1) In this Ordinance, a reference to offering shares or debentures of a company to the public includes offering them to a section of the public, whether selected—
- (a) as members or debenture holders of the company;
 - (b) as clients of the person making the offer; or
 - (c) in any other manner.
- (2) In this Ordinance and in a company's articles, a reference to an invitation to the public to subscribe for shares or debentures of a company includes an invitation to a section of the public, whether selected—
- (a) as members or debenture holders of the company;
 - (b) as clients of the person making the invitation; or
 - (c) in any other manner.
- (3) Neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) operates to treat a private offer of shares or debentures, or a private invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures, as an offer or invitation made to the public.

- (4) In particular—
- (a) a provision in a company's articles prohibiting invitations to the public to subscribe for shares or debentures is not to be regarded as prohibiting a private invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures to be made to members or debenture holders; and
 - (b) the provisions of this Ordinance relating to private companies are to be construed accordingly.
- (5) In this section, an offer of shares or debentures, or an invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures, is a private offer or invitation if the offer or invitation can properly be regarded, in all the circumstances, as being—
- (a) not calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation; or
 - (b) a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving the offer or invitation.

Division 3

Interpretation of this Ordinance: Types of Companies

Subdivision 1

Limited Company and Unlimited Company

7. Limited company

For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is a limited company if it is a company limited by shares or by guarantee.

8. Company limited by shares

- (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is a company limited by shares if the liability of its members is limited by the company's articles to any amount unpaid on the shares held by the members.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the liability of the members of an existing company is to be regarded as being limited by the company's articles to any amount unpaid on the shares held by the members if a condition of the memorandum of association of the company stating that the liability of the members is limited is regarded as a provision of the articles by virtue of section 98.

9. Company limited by guarantee

- (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is a company limited by guarantee if—
 - (a) it does not have a share capital; and
 - (b) the liability of its members is limited by the company's articles to the amount that the members undertake, by those articles, to contribute to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if the company was formed as, or became, a company limited by guarantee under a former Companies Ordinance before 13 February 2004.

10. Unlimited company

For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is an unlimited company if there is no limit on the liability of its members.

Subdivision 2

Private Company and Public Company

11. Private company

- (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is a private company if—
 - (a) its articles—
 - (i) restrict a member's right to transfer shares;
 - (ii) limit the number of members to 50; and
 - (iii) prohibit any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company; and
 - (b) it is not a company limited by guarantee.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a)(ii)—

member (成員) excludes—

 - (a) a member who is an employee of the company; and
 - (b) a person who was a member while being an employee of the company and who continues to be a member after ceasing to be such an employee.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, 2 or more persons who hold shares in a company jointly are to be regarded as one member.

12. Public company

- For the purposes of this Ordinance, a company is a public company if—
- (a) it is not a private company; and
 - (b) it is not a company limited by guarantee.

Division 4

Interpretation of this Ordinance: Holding Company and Subsidiary, and Parent Undertaking and Subsidiary Undertaking

13. Holding company

- (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a body corporate is a holding company of another body corporate if—
 - (a) it controls the composition of that other body corporate's board of directors;
 - (b) it controls more than half of the voting rights in that other body corporate; or
 - (c) it holds more than half of that other body corporate's issued share capital.
- (2) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a body corporate is also a holding company of another body corporate if it is a holding company of a body corporate that is that other body corporate's holding company.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a body corporate controls the composition of another body corporate's board of directors if it has power to appoint or remove all, or a majority, of that other body corporate's directors without any other person's consent.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a body corporate has the power to make such an appointment if—
 - (a) without the exercise of the power in a person's favour by the body corporate, the person cannot be appointed as a director of that other body corporate; or
 - (b) it necessarily follows from a person being a director or other officer of the body corporate that the person is appointed as a director of that other body corporate.

- (5) In subsection (1)(c), a reference to a body corporate's issued share capital excludes any part of it that carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of profits or capital.

14. Provisions supplementary to section 13

- (1) For the purposes of this Division—
- (a) if any share is held, or any power is exercisable, by a body corporate in a fiduciary capacity, the share or power is to be regarded as not being held or exercisable by the body corporate; and
 - (b) subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any share is held, or any power is exercisable, by a subsidiary of a body corporate, or by a person as nominee for a body corporate or such a subsidiary, the share or power is to be regarded as being held or exercisable by the body corporate.
- (2) For the purposes of this Division, any share in another body corporate held, or any power in relation to another body corporate exercisable, by a person by virtue of a debenture of that other body corporate, or of a trust deed for securing an issue of such a debenture, is to be regarded as not being held or exercisable by the person.
- (3) For the purposes of this Division, any share held, or any power exercisable, by a body corporate or a subsidiary of a body corporate, or by a person as nominee for a body corporate or such a subsidiary, is to be regarded as not being held or exercisable by the body corporate or subsidiary if—
- (a) the ordinary business of the body corporate or subsidiary includes the lending of money; and

- (b) the share or power is held or exercisable by way of security only for the purpose of a transaction entered into in the ordinary course of that business.
- (4) In subsection (1)(b), a reference to a body corporate or subsidiary excludes a body corporate or subsidiary that is concerned only in a fiduciary capacity.

15. Subsidiary

For the purposes of this Ordinance, a body corporate is a subsidiary of another body corporate if that other body corporate is a holding company of it.

16. Parent undertaking and subsidiary undertaking

A reference in this Ordinance to a parent undertaking or subsidiary undertaking is to be construed in accordance with Schedule 1.

Division 5

Application of this Ordinance

17. Application to existing company

- (1) This Ordinance applies to an existing company, in the same manner as if—
 - (a) in the case of a company limited by guarantee, the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as a company limited by guarantee;
 - (b) in the case of a limited company other than a company limited by guarantee, the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as a company limited by shares; or

- (c) in the case of a company other than a limited company, the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as an unlimited company.
- (2) For the purpose of applying this Ordinance to an existing company, a reference in this Ordinance to the date of registration is to be read as the date on which the company was registered under a former Companies Ordinance.
- 18. Application to unlimited company registered in pursuance of former Companies Ordinance as limited company
- (1) This Ordinance applies to an unlimited company registered as a limited company in pursuance of the predecessor Ordinance or section 58 of the Companies Ordinance 1911 (58 of 1911), in the same manner as it applies to an unlimited company registered under this Ordinance as a limited company.
- (2) For the purpose of applying this Ordinance to a company mentioned in subsection (1), a reference in this Ordinance to the date of registration is to be read as the date on which the company was registered in pursuance of the predecessor Ordinance or section 58 of the Companies Ordinance 1911 (58 of 1911).
- 19. Application to company registered, but not formed, under former Companies Ordinance
- (1) This Ordinance applies to a company registered, but not formed, under a former Companies Ordinance, in the same manner as it applies to an eligible company registered under Part 17.
- (2) For the purpose of applying this Ordinance to a company mentioned in subsection (1), a reference in this Ordinance to the date of registration is to be read as the date on which the company was registered under the former Companies Ordinance.
