Guide to Application for Mainland China-Hong Kong Cross-border License Plate

With the development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, the number of ports between Guangdong province and Hong Kong increases a lot. The relevant government authorities of the two places have launched administration measures on the quotas for cross-boundary private cars accordingly. Kaizen hereby summarizes the latest regulations for the application of quota for Hong Kong and Guangdong cross-boundary private cars as follow for your easy reference.

1. HK Cross-boundary Private Cars not using HK-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge

(1) Requirements for Investors of foreign Invested Enterprises

Foreign investors, investors from Hong Kong and Macao, whose total amount of tax paid in Guangdong province in the previous year meet the following conditions, may apply for quota for Hong Kong cross-boundary private cars:

- (a) may apply for the first quota if the total amount of tax paid in the previous year reaches RMB150,000 or above;
- (b) may apply for the second quota if the total amount of tax paid in the previous year reaches RMB500,000 or above;
- (c) may apply for the third quota if the total amount of tax paid in the previous year reaches RMB1,000,000 or above;
- (d) may apply for one more quota for each increase of the amount of tax paid in the previous year of RMB1,000,000 starting from the fourth quota. The total quota shall not exceed 15 (including all quotas applied by the investors).
